

1912 Breaking the Silence (Voces para un silencio)

The silenced history of the 1912 massacre of Afro-Cubans captured in a documentary by the award winning Cuban

Filmmaker Gloria Rolando

Film Screening

Friday, April 23, 7:15 pm

155 Nicholson Hall, University of Minnesota
Free and open to the public. Sponsored by:
Department of Cultural Studies and Comparative Literature Student Association,
University of Minnesota
Minnesota Women in Film and Television
For parking information:
<http://www1.umn.edu/twincities/maps/NichH/>

Reception and Film Screening

Saturday, April 24, 7:00 pm

Rumba Eterna Live

35th Floor Marquette Place
1314 Marquette Avenue, Minneapolis
Hors d'oeuvres by Victor's 1959 Café
Refreshments will be available
$10 - $20 donation requested

Minnesota Cuba Committee

www.minnesotacubacommittee.org | MNcuba@gmail.com | 763 228-2899