

Call for Paper (Last call)

The 9th Conference José Antonio Aponte in memoriam, national outline with international participation it will develop on January 26th to 28th of 2020. In commemoration of the centenary of the Cuban intellectual Raúl Cepero Bonilla and his book "Sugar and abolition" and also to Afro-descendant's decade, declared by UNESCO.

The Cuban Slave Route Committee: "resistance, freedom and heritage of Camaguey", with the backing of Provincial Directorship Cultural Heritage and the co-backing of the House of Cultural Diversity of Camaguey have the purpose to create an academic exchange to analyze and debate about relative issues of the black presence in America, Caribbean, Cuba and Camaguey cultures.

Main topic: The studies about racism in the contemporary world

Issues to debate:

1. Social movements.
2. Spiritual and material culture.
3. Intellectuals, theories and actions.

The organizer of the Route Slave committee in Camaguey is composed by:

MSc. Yoelxy Pilliner López, General Coordinator.

MSc. Rosa María Rodríguez Argilagos, Vice-Coordinator.

PhD. María del Carmen Domínguez and María del Carmen Veliz, Scientific committee coordinators.

Abstract must be sent to the following mail-address:

MSc. Yoelxy Pilliner López, yoelxypilliner@gmail.com, PhD. María del Carmen Domínguez maria.dominguez@reduc.edu.cu and María del Carmen Veliz maria.veliz@reduc.edu.cu (three addresses).

You can also delivery it to the same persons at The House of Cultural Diversity of Camaguey, Cisneros St. # 169, between Cristo St. and Martí St., Camagüey Cuba, Postcode: 70100, from Monday to Saturday, 9:00 am–2:00 pm.

Interesting data:

- ✓ Abstract (until 250 words) it will be receipted until November 1st and the acceptance it will communicate up to November 15th 2019. Abstract must include fundamental objective, essential development and expected result.
- ✓ Requirement for publishing: letter Arial 12, tip 1.5, abstract in Spanish and English with key words, up to 10 sheets (without bibliography and annex) and Norm APA 5. Participants must communicate what kind of technology is needed.
- ✓ The approved paper must be sent or delivered before December 15th 2019.
- ✓ Papers must have the next requirement:
 - a) Name and last name, mail-address, Centre of work, profession and teaching category or scientific.
- ✓ Power point or another support material to be introduced must be declared by mail or at the end of paper. It also must be sent by mail or delivery in pen-drive, CD or DVD before January 15th 2020 from 9:00 am. to 2:00 pm. at The House of Cultural Diversity of Camaguey or get in touch with MSc. Yoelxy Pilliner López or PhD. María del Carmen Domínguez and María del Carmen Veliz, Scientific committee.
- ✓ Registration rate is 80.00 CUP for national participants and 80.00 CUC for foreigners.

Important: Please non-national participants must guarantee themselves their round tickets to fly, travel to Camagüey, lodging, breakfast and dinner. Credential and lunch is courtesy of the Event.